2020 NEW ENGLAND SCHOOL FOR FINANCIAL STUDIES GRADUATES

BOSTON, September 15, 2020-- The Massachusetts Bankers Association (MBA) today announced that 71 students from banks and financial services firms completed the graduation requirements for the New England School for Financial Studies. This year's senior class was the first in the history of the school to complete its senior year in a virtual environment.

MBA established the School for Financial Studies in 1960 to provide opportunities for professional growth to employees of member banks and others in the industry. Over the years, it has grown to meet the needs of banks throughout New England with a focus on financial management, technology, lending, marketing, and other strategic industry issues. The School is sponsored by the Maine Bankers Association, Massachusetts Bankers Association, New Hampshire Bankers Association, Rhode Island Bankers Association, and Vermont Bankers Association.

"This was a terrific group and they adapted to the virtual format extremely well," said Meghan McCarthy, director, Education at MBA. "I'm confident that this year's graduates will go on to serve as the senior bank officers and financial leaders of tomorrow, helping to shape an industry that is one of New England's largest employers."

To complete the school program, students enroll in a one-year course of study, including a one-week residential session held at the Babson Executive Conference Center. This year, the second week, which includes a bank management simulation, was held virtually due to the coronavirus restrictions. In addition to the residential and virtual sessions, students must complete five bank-specific research papers.

The Massachusetts Bankers Association represents approximately 135 commercial, savings, and co-operative and federal savings banks and savings and loan associations with approximately $380 billion in local assets, 72,000 employees across Massachusetts and New England, over 2000 banking locations, more than 4,500 ATMs and donate more than $105 million annually to social agencies and charitable organizations across the Commonwealth.
